This Dufour 36 Classic is a comfortable and fully equipped yacht. She has already sailed the Atlantic Ocean twice and she is ready for new adventures. The layout is fairly traditional, but a bit more tailored in some details. This can also be found in the front cabin (which is slightly more to the rear on the port side), creating extra storage space. The cabin has a longitudinal kitchen, which has a spacious effect, with, among other things, a double sink, 2-burner stove with oven, and a large top-loading refrigerator.
